

Trinity County - 1

Less

important

Moderately

important

Not

important

Reduce conversion of natural lands

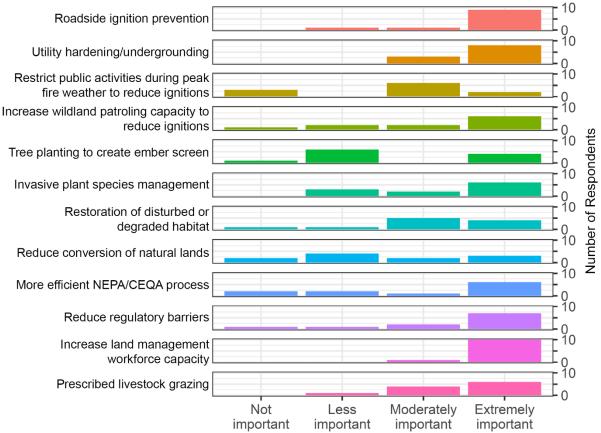

Management of invasive plant species

9 0

₿9

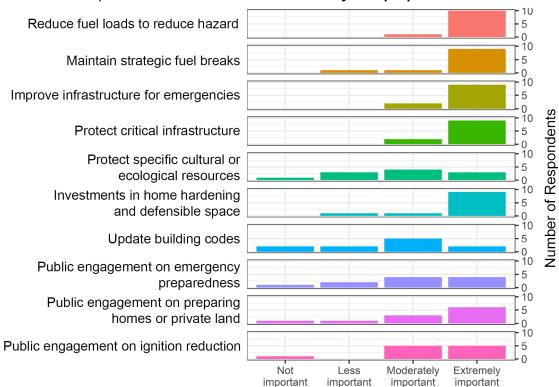

Extremely

important

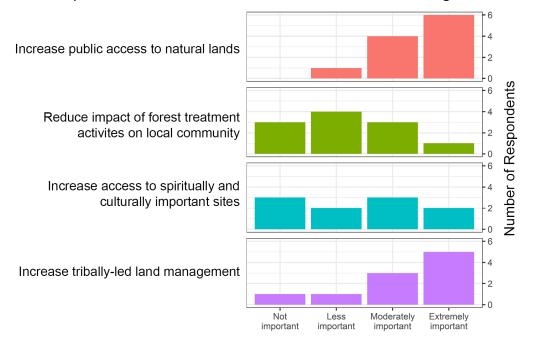

Importance of investments for healthy and resilient shrublands

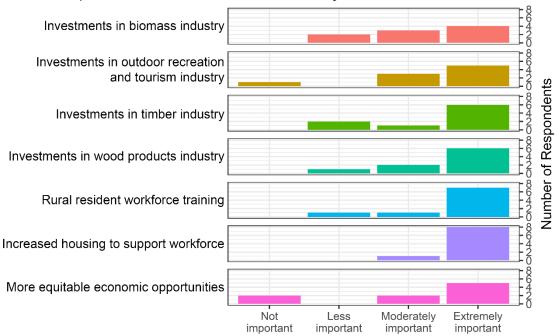

Please note: no survey participants responded to "Large and stable carbon stores" category for this county.

Importance of investments for fire safety and preparedness

Importance of investments for social and cultural well-being

Importance of investments for economically robust communities

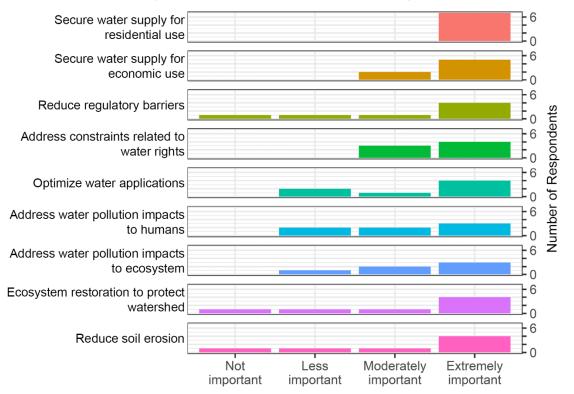

Importance of investments for biodiversity conservation

Importance of investments for air quality

Importance of investments for water security

Trinity County - 5